Clean, fresh, and spacious. Represents a blank canvas — the quiet power of restraint and intentionality.

Look 1 – Luxe Loungewear: At-home beauty routine, soft lighting, minimal makeup

Luxury starts at home. This look captures Maya's effortless glow and peaceful energy even in her comfort zone.

Look 2 – Soft Glam on the Go: Radiant skin, soft contour, glassy lips, and a confident gaze — ready to go from content creation to casual outing.

She's not doing too much — just enough to feel polished, powerful, and presentable. This look captures the effortless transition from 'get ready with me' to stepping into her day.

Look 3 – Statement Night Out: Lit-from-within skin, defined eyes, gold-toned shimmer, and a powerful red lip — paired with sleek textures for a confident, camera-ready finish.

She's radiant, refined, and unforgettable. This night-out look captures Maya's signature glam with bold femininity — a visual reminder that soft and striking can coexist.

A still life composition featuring Chanel No. 5 perfume, a pearl necklace, a lipstick, and a name tag. The perfume bottle is a clear, rectangular glass bottle with a faceted stopper, containing a yellowish-gold liquid. It is labeled 'N°5 CHANEL PARIS EAU DE PARFUM'. A pearl necklace with large, round pearls is draped across the scene. A tube of lipstick with a gold band and a black cap is open, showing a reddish-brown shade. A small, rectangular, light-colored tag with the name 'Emily' written in cursive is placed near the lipstick. The background is a soft, textured surface, possibly a white cloth, with gentle shadows and highlights creating a warm, elegant atmosphere.

*Maya's aesthetic is timeless, modern, and always intentional. This lookbook is a tribute to soft luxury, curated elegance, and divine femininity.
